*(a) Review and Discussion of FY2016 Draft/Proposed Budget:(For Possible Action)

Board Member Blasco requested Mrs. Hummel go over the proposed budget. Ms. Hummel addressed that other than the fixed budgeted items there is a 5% increase in both revenue and expenses. Ms. Hummel addressed certain accounts such as, office equipment stated the proposed budget has $12,000.00 budgeted for new video conference equipment, furniture & office supplies has budgeted for two new computers. Ms. Hummel stated that the proposed budget with regards to the office lease looks like the lease amount is less in FY16 but that there is a slight increase in rent but the savings they are seeing from FY2015 is due to the fact that the Medical Board has their own lease with the landlord and the Dental Board is no longer sub leasing to the Medical Board. The account noted as "Printing" is including the mailing of two newsletters in FY16. This is because the e-mail query with GL Suites is not complete has not been finalized. Based upon the recommendations of the Budget & Finance Committee the proposed budget does include merit increases and COLA. Board Member Guillen stated the proposed budget looked good,

Re: Prescription Monitoring Program

Dear Ms. Shaffer-Kugel,

Larry Pinson forwarded your letter of June 23, 2015, to me for response.

Once a prescriber is registered with the Nevada Prescription Monitoring Program (NV PMP) the registration stays active until we receive notification that the prescriber is no longer authorized to prescribe controlled substances. This may be the result of disciplinary action or failure to renew a license.

The email provided during the registration process becomes the individual's username. The email can be changed by contacting the NV PMP at pmp@pharmacy.nv.gov or (775) 687-5694. The user must complete a new Certification Statement specifying the change of email. We prefer to have the user contact us to change their email, however, registering for a new NV PMP account is also acceptable.

Passwords expire after 6 months. A user will receive courtesy reminders via email that their password will expire. A user can change their password before it expires within the User Profile section. If the password has expired a user can select Reset Password on the login screen. The user will receive an email containing a link to reset the password.

A copy of a User Support Manual is enclosed. It contains most of the information needed to register for and maintain an NV PMP account. The manual is also available at bop.nv.gov under the PMP link.

Please contact me at [REDACTED] if you have questions.

Best regards,

2015 Dental Examiners Legislative Session Report

The 78th Session of the Nevada Legislature adjourned sine die on June 1, having (mostly) completed its work within the 120 day deadline. Although a number of bills died at midnight, with budget and other essential bills passed, Governor Sandoval saw no need to call a special session. This marks one of the few occasions since the 1999 start of 120 day sessions that did not require extra innings for lawmakers to finish their business.

In all Governor Sandoval signed 549 bills and vetoed only seven pieces of legislation. Among the legislation enacted were most of the Governor's signature education reforms, a tax package to fund these reforms and the operation of State government, legalization of ride sharing services like Lyft and Uber, modest increases for healthcare providers in the Medicaid system, and incremental reforms in prevailing wage and collective bargaining.

The Session saw both houses controlled by Republicans for the first time in decades, but they were Republicans with very different goals in mind. The Senate was controlled by a moderate group of Republicans who signaled early on they were interested in education reforms and supporting the Governor's plan for increased revenue. The Assembly was a fragile coalition-style group of anti-tax conservatives (with strong views on a variety of other topics) and more moderate lawmakers, many from both groups swept into office as a result of an unusual 2014 election turnout we are unlikely to witness again any time soon.

To say the mix of personalities created a rocky ride would be an understatement. However, despite attempted coups, law enforcement investigations of murky political consultants and their legislative allies, angry floor outbursts and the 2/3 majorities required to pass tax bills, the Legislature stumbled across the finish line having enacted some historic legislation.

BOARD ISSUES

The State Public Works Board brought forward legislation to require boards and commissions to use buildings and grounds for all office leases. Boards, which have long been exempt from the State Budget Act, have not previously been required to do so. AB 59 was successfully amended to remove that requirement and add back in language deleted in 2011 that was being used by Public Works as authority to rope in boards and commissions. The law continues to allow boards and commissions to request state assistance if they desire.

AB 53 amended state law to provide a uniform standard of proof in certain disciplinary matters and petitions for judicial review. While many boards already had the preferred language, some chapters were not consistent and a recent court case raised the issue of inconsistent standards.

The Governor's offices of Economic Development and Veterans Services each brought bills dealing with expedited licensure of health care providers. SB 68 provides for licensure by endorsement of a wide variety of professionals (physicians, nurses, dentists, optometrists and pharmacists among them) who hold a valid license in another state or U.S. territory.

AB 89 requires regulatory boards to develop an expedited licensure by endorsement process for members of the military, spouses, veterans and spouses of veterans. It allows health care and other professional licensing boards to enter into reciprocity agreements with other states and territories for licensure. The bill also allows private employers to enact hiring preferences for veterans and spouses.

State employees regained some ground lost in recent sessions with furlough days eliminated, modest increases in pay over the next biennium (1% in the first year, 2% in the second year) and merit pay for unclassified employees of the Nevada System of Higher Education was approved.

HEALTHCARE

The Legislature dealt with a variety of healthcare issues this Session, ranging from telehealth to prescription drug abuse, as well as wrestling with how to pay for the increasing cost of healthcare for Medicaid, prisoners, the mentally ill and public employees. And after introducing a wide ranging menu of tort reform bills, in the end modest changes were made in this area. Multiple bills dealing with telehealth were introduced, but in the end AB 292 became the vehicle for this topic. The new law requires a provider of health care at a remote site to hold a valid Nevada license if they will “direct or manage the care or render a diagnosis of a patient who is located at an originating site in this State or write a treatment order or prescription”. This definition has caused some concern with the current practice of using remote experts for consultations. After a number of meetings with the Board of Medical Examiners staff, they have made it clear they see a distinction and would not require licensure for consultations. The existence of a relationship with a local provider who requested the consultation would be an important factor in determining whether the remote physician was directing care or consulting. These provisions were expressly included for physicians, nurses, and pharmacists. The bill does reference and provider of healthcare, so the same requirements may arguably apply to the broad range of providers.

The bill also requires insurers to cover telehealth to the same extent they cover services provided by other means. The bill does not regulate the payment for the different delivery methods.

Lawmakers also created an opioid overdose prevention policy for the State (SB 459) which includes a Good Samaritan immunity provision for a person calling for medical help. The bill allows certain practitioners to prescribe, and pharmacists to fill an order for an opioid antagonist to be administered by a friend or family member of an addict. Practitioners who initiate a prescription for a Schedule II, III or IV controlled substance for a new patient, or an existing patient for a new course of treatment lasting more than 7 days, are now required to obtain and review a patient utilization report from the prescription monitoring program run by the Board of Pharmacy.

SB 288 will require every practitioner eligible to prescribe controlled substance to take the prescription monitoring program use course and enroll to access the database if they wish to prescribe these drugs. They will further need to log on to the database at least every 6 months to verify their contact information once the program has implemented that feature.

TAXES

The Session began with Sandoval's proposal to create Business License Fee based on gross revenue, with a complicated mix of industry classifications and varying rates. Reminiscent of the Gross Receipts Tax of 2003, the BLF drew the swift, if knee-jerk, opposition of some sectors of the business community and a number of lawmakers. After being pushed out of the Senate the original BLF bill ran into a brick wall in the Assembly, where a mix of solid "no on any taxes forever" votes and policy-driven concerns about a gross revenue tax drove the need for a compromise bill.

The compromise, SB 483, imposes a new Commerce Tax based on gross revenue in excess of $4M, increases the modified business tax (MBT) on payroll, increases business license fee, extends expiring taxes, and raises the cigarette tax. Blending portions of the Assembly Republican plan to raise the MBT and the Governor's desire to expand the base of companies paying business taxes through a revenue-based tax, the bill will for the first time tax business revenue beyond the gaming, mining and insurance industries.

Companies with more than $4 million in Nevada-based gross revenue will pay a tax rate based on their industry classification. Most revenue subject to an existing gross tax can be deducted, as will revenue of non-profit organizations. Companies who owe the Commerce Tax will be able to deduct 50% of the tax paid from any MBT liability they have.

The MBT was increased from 1.17 to 1.475 percent, with the current exemption reduced from $85,000 per quarter to $50,000 per quarter, so more businesses pay. Mining and financial institutions will pay a 2% MBT rate. Additionally, the deduction for employer-paid health insurance remains in the law. The MBT rate can be reduced if Commerce Tax receipts come in at least 4% above projections.

The current annual business license fee of $200 will remain for most business types, but corporations will see an increase to $500. Cigarette taxes will go up $1.00, to $1.80 per pack, and the Live Entertainment Tax was amended from a split rate to a single rate of 9% and expanded to cover major events like Burning Man and the Electric Daisy Carnival. The so-called Sunset Taxes, originally passed in 2009 and extended each Session since, were made permanent. These include a vehicle registration fee and sales tax voters have now been paying for 6 years. And while not a tax per se, another bill signed by the Governor allows Clark and Washoe County to roll over school construction bonding authority for 10 years without a vote.

The new revenue and sunset taxes combined to create the State's largest tax increase, and will fund a record budget of some $7.4 billion for the coming biennium.

EDUCATION

The Governor's State of the State address in January included a goal of passing a reform package for Nevada's struggling education system. The Governor was successful and the 2015

Legislature passed a long list of bills that is already getting national attention. These education reforms include increased funding for full-time kindergarten, pre-K, special education, gifted and talented and ESL; creating a Read by 3 program, an office of bully prevention and college scholarships for education majors; reduced class size; bond roll-over for school districts; a re-organization and break-up of the Clark County School District; programs to offer teacher incentives, bonuses and increased training.

The bill getting the most attention is Education Savings Accounts, SB 302, creating the most inclusive K-12 school choice program in the country. Parents would have access to grants equal to 90% of the State's per-pupil funding to use for tuition at private schools, tutoring and eligible home school expenses for children who have been enrolled in Nevada public schools and decide to leave the public education system. The bill has received significant national attention, and could see a court challenge from opponents.

A new Achievement School District will be created to convert the lowest-performing public schools into charter schools. The new ASD will have its own executive director within the State Department of Education, and could start converting schools as soon as 2016.

Another bill to note, SB 514, provides funding to the UNLV School of Medicine, Boyd School of Law, UNLV Harrah Hotel College and UNLV International Center of Excellence in Gaming Regulation. The new UNLV School of Medicine will change the landscape of medical education in Nevada, and require significant work in both northern and southern Nevada to create the necessary departments, expertise, residencies and related infrastructure to service two complete medical schools.

Since the Session ended, the Governor has announced the Nevada launch of Western Governors University (WGU). This was established through grant funding, and is an on-line competency-based university formed by a partnership between the state and Western Governors University. WGU has earned the support of more than 20 leading corporations and foundations, and WGU Nevada is the 6th WGU state-based, state-endorsed university.

TRANSPORTATION NETWORK COMPANIES

Besides taxes, one of the largest battles of the 2015 Legislature was between the taxi/limo companies and the transportation network companies, Lyft and Uber: The Legislature authorized the transportation network companies to operate in Nevada with the passing of AB 175 and AB 176.

The authorization of these companies comes with a 3% excise tax to be charged to both taxis and TNC's on the total fares charged. The first $5 million of this tax each year will go to the Highway Fund, with the remainder going to the general fund. The regulation process is now in place and must be complete before the TNC's are operational. The embrace of the ride-sharing revolution, which is usually found to be more convenient and less expensive than typical taxi service, shows that the state welcomes competition and change.

OTHER ISSUES

Gun laws were a hot topic this session, with firebrand Assembly member Michelle Fiore leading the charge on campus carry legislation, which ultimately failed. Laws were strengthened to prevent those convicted of domestic violence from owning guns; the Castle Doctrine was expanded to include motor vehicles, and reciprocity standards for concealed weapon carry permits with other states were lowered.

Some notable legislation that did not survive the sine die deadline included parental notification for minors seeking abortions, Republican voter ID proposals, an increase in the solar energy rebate cap sought by the solar industry, and early Presidential primary to replace the current party caucus system.
